FEE WAIVER REQUEST

RE: Marc Stephens vs Edward Jerejian, et el Civil Complaint

Dear Judge Martini,

On November 5, 2014, I was informed by the Clerk's office of the Denial of my fee waiver request for the case indicated above. I have enclosed supporting documents regarding my indigence.

Due to dealing with multiple lawsuits and paying legal and court fees, I have exhausted all funds.

1. I recently dealt with a divorce in California (on file with your chambers), see EXHIBIT 1;
2. I am currently dealing with foreclosure, see EXHIBIT 2a-b;
3. a Civil lawsuit I filed in the Supreme Court of New York for breach of contract, fraud, tortious interference, conversion, etc, see EXHIBIT 3, (I was awarded default judgment, but the judge put a stay on all assets, Summary Judgment hearing scheduled for January 21, 2015) and;
4. a Civil lawsuit in District Court of New Jersey - Newark regarding case 2:14-cv-05362-WJM-MF.

All of these cases, as well as several prior cases which are detailed in the complaint for case2:14-cv-05362-WJM-MF, I had to pursue pro se because I could no longer afford the legal and court fees, see EXHIBIT 3 – Remove Counsel for pro se.

In addition, I am currently unemployed, and unable to work, or go out in public, due to multiple death threats on my life, see EXHIBIT 4a-b - police report. I filed the recent lawsuit because the judge denied my firearm application despite the fact that I had no disqualifiers, and I proved justifiable need which two police officers confirmed and testified in court.

Stephens vs Jerejian et al, is also linked to case2:14-cv-05362-WJM-MF, because judge Jerejian stated my firearm application was also denied due to my brother Tyrone Stephens, who is a plaintiff, resides with me. I proved in my firearm hearing that the detectives framed my brother and his attorneys provided ineffective assistance.

I filed as pro se (1) due to lack of funds; (2) in order to stay clear of running past the statute of limitations. If my fee waiver is approved, I will immediately reimburse the court once the cases are resolved.

Respectfully Submitted,

Marc Stephens
Plaintiff, pro se

NARRATIVE 2014-000193 On 02/11/14 at 1545 hours I interviewed Marc A. Stephens regarding various incidents which he alleges occurred from December 2011 through the date of this report. Stephens' claims were documented in his application for a Firearms Purchaser Identification Card and Handgun Purchase Permit. I was asked by Detective Captain Tim Torell to ascertain whether any of these incidents were reported to the Englewood Police Department and if so the results of any investigations that took place. Marc Stephens explained that the following incidents occurred within the City of Englewood: (1) On an ongoing basis his residence is "bugged" resulting in his conversations being monitored, as is the case with his cellular phone. (2) His computers have been attacked with various viruses and tracking devices have been installed. (3) On or about May 12, 2012 a woman knocked on his door and asked him if he wanted the "dead wood" in his backyard. Because there was no dead wood in his yard he believes she was there to harass or intimidate him. (4) Approximately two weeks after the incident with the dead wood, a man knocked on his door and asked him if he was interested in buying steaks. Because this is not customary he believes this individual was there to harass or intimidate him. (5) In September of 2012 all four tires on his vehicle were slashed while the vehicle was parked in the driveway. Stephens stated that he had to replace all four tires but did not provide me with any documentation to confirm said repairs. (6) In December of 2012 a statue located in his front yard was discovered with the head chopped off. (7) In June of 2013 Stephens' cell phone rang at 2:00 AM, the phone number displayed was that of the school his niece and nephew attend, which is located in South Jersey. Because he has no affiliation whatsoever with this school he feels this was a message sent to indicate that his family was in danger. The children were...

not harmed and according to Stephens no emergency existed at their school.

(8) In July of 2013 an individual was parked in front of his residence and taking photographs of the house. When confronted this individual stated that he was working for "the mortgage company." When asked the name of the mortgage company the individual could not provide the correct answer. Stephens called the mortgage company who could not confirm that they sent someone to the house to take photographs. He believes this individual was there to harass or intimidate him.

(9) On July 11, 2013, Stephens observed a white van with tinted windows parked outside his residence. When the operator of the van observed Stephens at the front door the van quickly fled the area.

(10) On July 11, 2013, Stephens received numerous calls on his cell phone from an unknown voice stating that his funeral would be coming soon. Stephens was unable to provide me with voice mail messages or a phone number from which the calls originated.

(11) On August 1, 2013, a dead raccoon which had been stabbed multiple times was found on his rear porch.

I asked Marc Stephens if he reported any of these incidents to the Englewood Police at the time they occurred. Stephens explained that he did not for two reasons. The first reason is because every time he had reported an incident to the police, the "Skeptic Society" has retaliated, specifically by killing his mother-in-law in April of 2012 and his wife's grandmother in February of 2013. The second reason is that he believes the "Skeptic Society" has infiltrated all law enforcement agencies and as such contacting the police would certainly result in further retaliation. I conducted an internet search on Indira Hale-Tucker and Helene Hale in an effort to determine if their death was a result of a crime. I discovered that both women died of natural causes at the ages 68 and 94 respectively.

Stephens stated that on January 10, 2013 he informed Sergeant George Alston of the Englewood Police Department of his situation and Alston told him that Police Officers are "not responsible for individuals being harassed or whose life has been threatened." I asked Sergeant Alston about Stephens' claim that he attempted to report these incidents to him on January 10, 2013. Sergeant Alston stated that he asked Stephens why he never reported these incidents at which time Stephens stated that he did not want to make police reports because the Skeptic Society would find out and retaliate against him and his family. Sergeant Alston told me that he also instructed Stephens to report any further incidents.

Due to the time which has elapsed since these incidents and the lack of specific details provided an investigation into these incidents at this time is not possible. A check of the Englewood Police records management system did not reveal any similar incidents being reported during the same time period as the incidents listed above. In addition no records of any reports made by Marc Stephens were located.

Marc Stephens also reported numerous other incidents which took place outside the jurisdiction of Englewood, including New York, California and Hawaii. I explained that these incidents should be brought to the attention of the Court by notifying Assistant Prosecutor Ryan Magee because I do not have jurisdiction in these matters. Stephens also explained that many threats have been made by email and in blogs on various websites. I again instructed him to bring these threats to the attention of the Court by notifying Assistant Prosecutor Ryan Magee.
